Lots plan could land on ballot

BY ADRIANA HERNANDEZ
Daily Post Staff Writer

A proposed Measure 5 proposition will force the voters to vote a ballot item concerning the city's plans to issue bonds for a $100 million parking lot that would be located in the city center.

The bond, San Dieguito Measure 5, is for a ballot item to start collecting $100 million in bonds to fund the project, according to city documents.

Opponents to get signatures

By Monday, the city's Measure 5 opponents must have gathered 10,000 signatures to get the proposition on the ballot. The city clerk's office has 15 days to verify the signatures and return it to the Board of Supervisors for a final decision.
